MARKET HALL

A vibrant hub for local life

Knutsford Market Hall opened its doors in 1964 and is open every Tuesday, Thursday, Friday & Saturday.

The market is home to a traditional butcher, an organic greengrocer, a vinyl record shop, a cosy café, a card and balloon shop, a delicious dessert stall plus a barber and mobile phone repairs. Keep an eye out for our weekly pop-ups too!

SPECIALITY MARKETS

Princess Street Comes Alive: The Monthly Makers Market

On the first Sunday of each month (February to November), Princess Street transforms into a vibrant Makers Market, showcasing the best of Cheshire's food and artisan crafts. With live music and delicious street food, it's the perfect way to spend a Sunday!

A two-day Christmas Market organised by the Town Council brings a festive atmosphere to the heart of Knutsford. Enjoy a wonderful selection of high-quality foods, crafts, and gifts, complete with live entertainment and tempting street food.

New for 2026 is a monthly antiques market which takes place on the last Sunday of each month in Knutsford Market Hall. Browse antiques, vintage and retro goods and find something truly unique.

The Knutsford Voucher

EXPLORE. TASTE. SHOP. LOVE.

A FEAST FOR FOOD LOVERS

Whether you are looking for a casual pint or a white-tablecloth experience, Knutsford delivers. The town is home to a host of restaurants and cafes. There is something to suit every palate and budget - traditional pub fayre, fine dining, seasonal small plates, vegetarian, or afternoon teas, Indian or Greek - Knutsford has it all.

RAISE A GLASS!

Whatever your drink of choice, Knutsford's pubs and bars have you covered. Whether you prefer a casual and laid-back atmosphere, a trendy vibe, or a touch of elegance, you'll find the perfect hostelry to unwind in.

Undecided? Choose a guided food tour - Taste Knutsford - a fun, informal way of sampling what the town has to offer. You will meet the owners, find out a little bit more about their establishment and their food. Visit - www.tasteknutsford.co.uk

Whilst enjoying your time in Knutsford please don't forget to visit:

The Heath & The Moor: Our flagship open spaces. The Heath offers a large open space for rest and dog walking with an adjacent woodland or head to the Moor for our children's play area or to feed the ducks at the Moor Pool.

Knutsford Heritage Centre: Tucked away just off King Street, where you can view our incredible Millennium Tapestry and discover more of Knutsford's history.

Brook Street Heritage Site: The resting place of famous Victorian novelist Elizabeth Gaskell.

Crosstown Community Orchard: Just off Mobberley Road, an open to all green space where you can grab an apple and chill.

Sites of Interest : As you wander the town centre, delve into our rich history through numerous blue plaques and the engaging Lions' Museum in the Street panels. A little further out is Legh Road a film location for Spielberg's Empire of the Sun!

WELCOME TO HISTORIC KNUTSFORD

Step into Knutsford, a historic market town just 15 miles southwest of Manchester, where independent spirit thrives. Discover a unique blend of shops, restaurants, bars, and cafés that promise a refreshing escape from the ordinary. Beyond the delightful twin high streets, find tranquil green spaces and the grandeur of nearby Tatton Park. Let this map be your guide to exploring all that this wonderful town has to offer!

UNIQUE SHOPPING &
MARKET EXPERIENCE

Knutsford proudly champions its independent retailers, where you'll find genuine, personal service.

Browse a classic toy shop, indulge in an old-fashioned sweet shop, discover a signature scent at a specialist perfumery, or explore a home interior haven that has graced Knutsford for over a century. This unique character blends seamlessly with select well-known brands such as The Cotswold Company, Susie Watson Designs, Graham & Brown, and Curzon Cinema. Add to this an independent wine merchant, fashion boutiques, an independent bike shop, a coffee specialist that features in the UK Indy Coffee guide and a delightful Swedish café and lifestyle store - it's a shopping experience refreshingly different from the high street norm. If you are a yoga, Pilates, or gym bunny you will also be spoilt for choice!
